

September 3rd, 2009 |

P3A Board of Directors makes rules for commentary available

The first meeting for the Board of Directors of the Puerto Rico Public-Private Partnerships Authority (P3A) was held yesterday, declared its chairman, Carlos M. García. The Board devoted its efforts to address the Authority's organizational structure.

Carlos M. García. The Board devoted its efforts to address the priority issues on the organization of the Authority.

Specifically, the Board voted to make the Proposed Regulation for Tender, Evaluation, Selection, Negotiation and Awarding of Contracts for Public-Private Partnerships under the Law No. 29 of June 8, 2009 available for public commentary.

The proposed regulation is designed to establish processes that are uniform and transparent, and encourage and support a climate of innovation and investment in infrastructure, while protecting the public interest.